third Sir Knight, the favorite, kicked up and sent his rder, Griffin, heavily to the ground. The jockey, however, was not hurt badly. In the last race Bucephaius tumbled backward, and Barry, his mount, was badly injured.

The only stake event was the Pansy stakes, which proved a big upset for the talent. The Commoner, an odd-on favorite, with Taral up, was not able to finish better than third. Havere, a 12 to 1 shot, won by a head from Prince of Monaco, Pittsburg Phil, pocketed about $20,000 by the victory of his horse Candelabra in the third race. Taral was fined $200 and set down until July 4th for disobedience at the post. Summary:

First race—three-year-olds and upwards, sweepstakes, $100 added; six furlongs—Potentate (90). Brooks, 5 to 15 first, Addie second, Nick third. Time, 1:101-5.

Second race—the Pansy stakes, sweepstakes for two-year-old foals of 1892, with $1,200 added; six furlongs on the turf—Havere (18, Penn, 12 to 1) first, Prince of Monaco second. The Commoner third. Time, 1:13-3-5.

letter from Chester, S. C., in the Charlotte (N. C.) Observer of yesterday

The creditors of Fishing Creek Manufacturing Company went before Judge Fraser and demanded the appointment of a receiver for the company. W. H. Hardin, present receiver of the Chester and Cheraw railroad, and J. F. Marion, former president of the mill, were appointed.

former president of the min, were appointed.

Fishing Creek mill was considered one of the best yarn mills in the South. It was built about twelve years ago by Mr. F. H. Barber, who is one of the largest atockholders, and was president for a number of years. It has paid a good dividend until about three yeasr ago, when the financial depression came on.

Judge Fraser has furthermore appointed Mr. J. L. McLarnon receiver of the Moffatt Machine works. The Moffatt Machine works. The Moffatt Machine works were built about six years ago, and have never been much of a success.

Mr. A. S. Tompkins, receiver of the Chester Manufacturing Company, known as the Chester gingham mill, will sell it next Monday. It is reported that the stockholders will reorganize and bid the

AN OLD MASONIC LODGE.

Interesting History of Botetourt in Gloucester-Visit of Richmond Ladies, GLOUCESTER, C. H., VA., June 27 .-Special.—Botetourt Lodge, No. 7, A. F. and A. M., celebrated St. John the Baptist's day on yesterday in fine style, Many of the craft were present, among whom was R. W. Parke Jones, lecturer of District No I, who installed the officerselect. An elegant dinner was partaken of, a goodly number of lades, the wives, daughters, sisters and mothers of Masons, gracing the occasion with their presence. After dinner Mr. T. S. Tallaferro read in the Courthouse the splendid address delivered by R. T. Duke, one of the Grand Lodge officers, on December last, at the laying of the corner-stone of the Masonic Home. The degrees of 'M. M.'s wife and daughter' and 'Eastern Star' were conferred upon some twelve or fifteen lades.

Botetourt Lodge has a very interesting instory. In 1873 a 'warrant' was given by Frederickeburg Lodge, No. 4, to five Masons in Gloucester, empowering them to work. Unfortunately this warrant was lost during the late war.

On November 6, 1773, a charter was oblained from the Grand Lodge in Virginia at that time. This charter is still in the possession of Botetourt Lodge, and is in a good state of preservation. The lodge also has the original by-laws in manuof Virgina was organized, Warner Lewis, one of its Past Masters, was nominated of Virgina was organized, Warner Lewis, one of its Past Masters, was nominated for Grand Master. Many Episcopal ministers belonged to it, and were zealous Masons, Among them the names of Reve. Arthur Hamilton, James Maury Fontaine, John Hughes and Armistead Smith appear in the secretary's book, which dates back about one hundred years. John Page, one of the Governors of Virginia, was also one of its members. About 1000 the Lodge went down, and was dormant until 1850, when him Masons in the county met and applied for a "Dispensation" from the Grand Master of Virginia, It was granted and in December a charter was obtained. Many Masons were made and the Lodge prospered finely until the war came on. A zeal for Masonry, however, prompted many of its members, who were soldiers of the Twenty-fifth Virginia Infantry, to obtain a "warrant for a military Lodge in that regiment, in which many Masons were made. The name of the Lodge was "Rebe! Lodge No. 223.
